SIR,

Subject:- Transfer - Inam land - endowed to Sri Aswatha-narayanaswami temple - in favour of Sri Subra-manyaswami temple at Narasimharajapur.

In forwarding herewith the vernacular records received with the Kadur District Deputy Commissioner's letter No.A5-2062-28 dated 30-11-32 (copy enclosed) on the above subject, I have the honor to state as follows:-

It is reported that the Sri Aswathanarayanaswami temple at Narasimharajapur, which is endowed with the marginally noted inam land has been declared as a defunct institution as neither a building nor an aswatha tree has been in existence and that the idol has been kept in the Sri Subramanyaswami temple at the place. The inam land has been leased out to one A. Mahasena Rau for Rs 25/- per annum for 5 years from 1932-33. It is stated that the gutta amount for 1932-33 and the crop realisations for 1931-32 have been credited to the head General Muzrai Funds.

2. The Sri Subramanyaswami temple at the place which is a private institution is reported to be functioning regularly. It is stated that this institution has no cash or land endowment and that the Nityakatle and Hetchukatle expenses are met by means of subscriptions raised from the devotees and that the pujari is rendering services without any remuneration. The Deputy Commissioner reports that this institution is serving the needs of the place and that there are no other Government institutions deserving of encouragement in the locality. He recommends that the inam land endowed to Sri Aswathanarayanaswami temple referred to above may be ordered to be transferred to the Sri Subramanyaswami temple and the latter treated as a Village Institution. As the villagers appear to be taking a keen interest in the Sri Subrahmanyaswami temple and as the institution is in real need of help, and as both the institutions belong to the same denomination and are situated in the same place, I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to the transfer of the inam land as recommended by the Deputy Commissioner.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

1) The proposal of the M.C. is forwarded —

2) The recommn. of the M.C. may be sanctd. in the cases explained.

In forwarding herewith vernacular correspondence ending with Tarikere Sub Division Officer's No. S2-1159-31 dated 4th October '32 recommending the transfer of inam land endowed to the Aswathanarayana temple to the Subrahmanyaswami temple at Narasimharajapura, I have the honor to 32 state that the Deputy Amildar reported that the temple of Aswathanarayana was not in existence and the inam land endowed to the said temple might be transferred to the Subrahmanyaswami temple at the place. This land was leased out to one A. Mahasena Rau for Rs 25/- per annum for 5 years from 1932-33. The sale amount for 32-33 and the crop realisations for 1931-32 3 were ordered to be credited to General Muzrai Funds and instructions given to treat this temple as a defunct one. The temple of Subrahmanyaswami in the Narasimharajapura Town to which Inam S.No.77 is proposed to be transferred is at present managed by the devotees. The expenses connected with Nityakatle and Hetchukatle sevas are met by means of subscriptions raised from the devotees and the Pujari is rendering services without any remuneration. One Aragada Nagappa is managing the temple and as the institution is reported to be serving a real want and as there are no other Government institutions deserving of such encouragement, the inam lands endowed to Aswathanarayanaswami may be transferred to Subrahmanyaswami temple and the institution treated as a "Village Institution."

The Sub Division Officer, Tarikere, recommends the proposal of the Deputy Amildar.

I request that orders of Government may kindly be obtained to transfer the inam lands endowed to Sri Aswathanarayana to Sri Subrahmanyaswami temple at Narasimharajapura.
